

The Inventory of You

Who are you? <ul style="list-style-type: none">- What things interest you?- What would you do for a living if money were no object?- What problems in your own life would you like to solve?- What type of day-to-day work would you like to complete?- What makes you feel fulfilled?- What is your favourite part of your current or previous jobs?- What do you feel are your most dominant traits?- Are you creative?- What traits do you have related to your work?- What traits do you have related to your personal life?	Summarize the key points here:
What do you know? <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Do you have any formal education? If so, in what field? What skills are required for this field?- What type of job experience do you have? What types of tasks did you handle and what skills did you learn?- What would you define as your area(s) of expertise?- Is there anything about your pastimes that you are particularly knowledgeable about?- Do you have any knowledge that your friends or family would say that you take for granted?- What other types of training do you have?- Can you think of any other marketable skills that you possess?	Summarize the key points here:
Who do you know? <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Who are your closest friends and what types of connections do they have that might be useful?- What types of volunteer groups, sports clubs, or other interest groups are you part of?- Who are your coworkers and how might they help in develop a business?- What other contacts have you developed through your professional experience?- What other contacts have to developed through your social life and pass times?	Summarize the key points here: